

1. The British Isles comprise the two independent countries of _____
2. The Gulf Stream provides a moderate _____ climate for much of Western Europe
3. The North European Lowland holds most of Europe's _____ Potential
4. What two rivers act to naturally divide Europe?
5. Where are the major mountain ranges of the Alpine region?
6. Why do the countries of Western Europe have more moderate type C climates even though they are in the northern latitudes?
7. How does agricultural production vary with physical landforms or climate changes?